

FINDING HOUSING: POSTDOCS

We recommend that you start your accommodation search as soon as possible. Here are resources and tips for you:

Please note that in order to register and activate your CPR number in Denmark, you must show a housing lease or documentation that you have a place to live for a minimum of one month. Without an activated CPR number, you are not covered by health insurance and cannot open a bank account. Therefore, it is essential that you secure housing before registration and ideally before your arrival to Denmark.

HOUSING OVERVIEW

You can find a broad overview of information about all the different housing options here.

AU GUEST ACCOMMODATION

Aarhus University has a limited number of temporary furnished accommodation available for academic employees. There is short-term housing at the Math Department and in the Dorms.

AU HOUSING PORTAL

We offer a free portal for anyone interested in letting or subletting accommodation to Aarhus University staff. You can search for accommodation and post a search ad. Enter the portal here.

To log in: Username: ichousing, and password: wwsx (Please do not share the login information with others).

LEASE CONTRACT

The official lease contract in Denmark is only provided in Danish. However, there is an English translation available here. This is not an authorized translation, but it will give you an accurate overview.

HOUSING SCAMS

Housing frauds are rare, but unfortunately, they do occur. To avoid scams, you can find some advice and information here.

HOUSING ON THE PRIVATE MARKET - Popular websites:

- BoligPortal.dk
- Findbolig.nu
- Lejebolig.dk
- Ahomeapartments.dk (furnished)
- Blækhus (furnished)
- UNITY LIVING (furnished)
- BoligZonen

Location of your future housing

Like in most cities, cost varies depending on location. It is therefore a good idea to keep your mind open to areas where you get more value for money. The university is located in Aarhus C, next to Aarhus N.

Good luck with your housing search and please contact us if you have questions – we are here to help!

