

Finding Housing

OUR SERVICES

Aarhus University Relocation Services can assist you in finding housing in Aarhus. At our first meeting or with our initial contact, we can discuss your housing needs and work with you to find the right fit.

More specifically, we can:

- Give you an overview of all the various options for accommodation
- Provide advice on locations and prices
- Help you with any language barriers
- Review the leasing contract with you
- Go over all documentation and answer all of your questions and concerns before you sign a lease

LEASE CONTRACT

As the official lease contract in Denmark is only available in Danish, we can provide you with an English translation and then walk you through all the important details.

We can also provide you with a document with a few important points of what to look out for when leasing in Denmark

We are happy to help you find the right place to live.

AU GUEST ACCOMMODATION

Aarhus University has a limited number of temporary furnished accommodation available for academic employees at Nobelparken, Peter Sabroes Gade, and at the Old Observatory Villa. You can find more information about these options here. We also have short-term housing available at the Math Department.

AU HOUSING PORTAL

We offer a free portal for anyone interested in letting or subletting accommodation to Aarhus University staff. On the portal, you can see what is available and you can also post a search ad. Enter the portal here.
